

House Resolution No. 1909

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have admirably accepted tremendous responsibilities during improvements to the infrastructure of local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Russell I. Freed of Moberly has attained considerable distinction as the Operations Manager for Orscheln Properties Company; and

Whereas, Russell Freed recently enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he worked as a liaison between the Randolph County Commission and the engineers, architect, and contractors associated with the building of the new Randolph County Justice Center; and

Whereas, universally praised for his professionalism, work ethic, and experience, Russell Freed proved to be instrumental in the timely completion of the Randolph County Justice Center; and

Whereas, thanks in large measure to the dedication and oversight of Russell Freed, the Randolph County Justice Center proceeded with constant progress, attention to details, and quality control; and

Whereas, Russell Freed is the beloved husband of Valinda Freed and the loving father of Daniel and Amy, all of whom are justifiably proud of his service as a Deacon and adult Sunday School teacher at First Baptist Church; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding citizens as Russell Freed:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the civic-minded contributions so generously given by Russell Freed to the citizens and institutions of Randolph County and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt commendation of his leadership successes during the construction of the new Randolph County Justice Center; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Russell I. Freed of Moberly, Missouri.
